Dear Friends in Christ,

Soon pine boughs and poinsettias will transform our worship space in preparation for Christmas. The greening of the church allows sight, smell and texture to drive us more deeply into the mystery of the Incarnation. Anyone who has come on Christmas Eve knows that these worship services reach far beyond our own membership. We open our doors to the community, and for some it may be their first encounter with God in worship in a very long time.

Thank you for considering a gift of flowers to remember those whom you love but see no longer. Please return the flower offering envelope by Sunday, December 17th.

With Advent Hope in the Coming of the Light,
